Peek at the Redesign of IAC's Website for the Public, www.vaccineinformation.org

Before the end of 2012, the Immunization Action Coalition (IAC) will be launching a major redesign of its website for the public, www.vaccineinformation.org. Offering information about vaccination for the entire lifespan, the newly designed website will be organized by age group—Infants & Children, Preteens, Teens, and Adults. It will offer your patients accurate information and valuable resources from trusted organizations.

SNEAK PEEK AT THE CONTENT

• Schedules

Detailed information about the immunization schedules broken down by age group—infants and children, preteens, teens, and adults

• Personal Testimonies

Stories of suffering and loss from vaccine-preventable diseases

• Videos

Collection of hundreds of videos and public service announcements about vaccine-preventable diseases and the importance of vaccination

• Resources

Frequently updated listing of helpful resources for people in all age groups who seek information about vaccines

• Vaccine-Preventable Diseases

Information and resources for all vaccine-preventable diseases, including those associated with international travel

• The Basics

Basic and helpful information on vaccines, ranging from "How to Pay for Vaccines" to "How Vaccines Work"

IAC will announce the launch of the redesigned vaccineinformation.org, in IAC Express, our free weekly email news service. If you would like to start receiving weekly email announcements about important developments related to immunization, as well as the future notification of the redesign launch, we urge you to complete the sign-up form at www.immunize.org/subscribe.
